

Impact Engine is an institutional investor managing venture capital and private equity strategies that drive positive impact in the areas of economic opportunity, environmental sustainability, and health equity.

RAHUL BHIDE

Vice President

As a Vice President at Impact Engine, Rahul specializes in Economic Opportunity investment sourcing, diligence, and support.

Prior to joining Impact Engine, Rahul was on the Strategy & Impact team at Omidyar Network India, assessing the impact of the portfolio, contributing to investment strategy, and supporting portfolio customer insights efforts. Rahul has also spent time at a US fintech startup focusing on optimizing debt for Americans households. Rahul started his career in strategy consulting at Bain & Company.

Rahul holds a BA in Economics and Political Science from the University of Chicago as well as an MBA from the Yale University School of Management.